Brand Guidelines

Color Palette

We avoid the generic 'tech blue' or 'luxury black'. The primary is a vibrant Living Coral (#FF6B5C) that feels energetic and human. The background is not white, but a warm Cream (#FFFBF7) to reduce eye strain and increase warmth. Text

Typography

Fraunces is a variable soft-serif that oozes personality and warmth—perfect for the 'editorial beauty' vibe. Pairing it with Outfit, a geometric sans with rounded corners, reinforces the friendly, approachable geometry of the brand.

Logo Usage

Approach: wordmark

For a consumer app named 'Kado', a custom typographic treatment (Wordmark) is most effective. It allows the personality of the name to shine without the need for an abstract symbol that might be misinterpreted.

Writing Rules

- Use contractions (you're, we'll) to sound conversational.
- Focus on how the user FEELS, not just the product specs.
- Use emojis sparingly but effectively to add emotion.
- Avoid beauty industry jargon; explain things simply.

Example Headlines

"Your monthly dose of 'Me Time'."

"We kissed a lot of frogs to find these princes."

"Beauty without the bewilderment."

Avoid

- x Don't use fear-based marketing (e.g., 'Don't let your skin age').
- x Don't be cold or clinical.
- x Don't use passive voice.

UI Style

Stroke Style

bold - A 2px bold stroke adds a tactile, illustrative quality that feels less 'software' and more 'storybook'. It frames content like a physical card.
